The proposed activities provided by Victory Camp require participation in physical exercises which are by their nature, physically demanding. Many of the activities, including, but not limited to, challenge course activities, soccer, go-karts, basketball, volleyball, etc., will or may challenge you and could cause surges in blood pressure and pulse rates. It is imperative that you are free from any heart-related or other diseases. Therefore, all participants must be free of medical or physical conditions which might create undue risks to themselves or any others who depend on them. If there is any doubt about your ability to safely participate in this experience, you should receive a physical examination. If you check any of the inquired conditions, it is solely your responsibility to receive the necessary approval from the appropriate health care providers for your participation in all physical activities. If more information is needed regarding such activities, please contact Victory Camp.
